

Educational Opportunities from Kaplan University

New York State Professional Firefighters Association is pleased to be working with Kaplan University to provide members the opportunity to pursue educational and career goals—while receiving a 33 percent tuition reduction¹ on the following Kaplan University degree programs:

- Associate of Applied Science in Fire Science
- Bachelor of Science in Fire Science
- Bachelor of Science in Fire Science and Emergency Management

Kaplan University is a regionally accredited university² with online fire science and emergency management degree programs that closely follow the Fire and Emergency Services Higher Education (FESHE) national curriculum model.

Online—On Your Terms

Kaplan University brings the classroom to you, with online flexibility that allows you to study on your schedule. Online flexibility is ideal for individuals in the fire science and emergency management fields who may work nontraditional hours. Our comprehensive programs are taught by experienced professors and feature real-world courses that focus on the skills needed in today's job market.

Your Degree May Be Closer Than You Think

National Fire Academy (NFA) courses, on-the-job training or experience may translate into college credits, giving you a head start on your degree.³ We are committed to helping you transfer in eligible credit saving you both time and money in completing your degree. Kaplan University also offers reduced tuition rates for U.S. active-duty servicemembers, their spouses, and veterans.¹

We Stand Behind Our Academic Quality. Take Our 5-Week Trial.

That's the Kaplan CommitmentSM You have the right to make an educated decision about your education. Only at Kaplan University can you take the first 5 weeks of class to decide if you will stay and pursue your studies—or withdraw without any financial obligation beyond the nonrefundable application fee. That's how confident we are in the quality of our instructors and programs, and how committed we are to serving our students.⁴

1 Reduced tuition recipients are not eligible for other Kaplan University scholarships, discounts, or tuition vouchers.

2 Kaplan University is regionally accredited. Please see our website for additional information about institutional and programmatic accreditation.

3 Kaplan University does not guarantee the transferability of credit from any of these sources. See University Catalog for Prior Learning Assessment policy.

4 Classes will count toward a student's degree if satisfactorily completed. No credits are earned if the student withdraws during the introductory period. The introductory period is five weeks and begins day one of the student's first academic term. If at any point during the introductory period a student chooses to opt out, he or she will have no other obligation to the University other than the application fee. The application fee is waived for employees of preselected corporations and postsecondary institutions with which Kaplan University has an educational relationship. Only available to new students; continuing students are not eligible. Additional terms may apply to international students and non-U.S. citizens.
