Travel Guard

Your Worldwide Travel Assistance Program

Travel assistance is an important employee benefit that contributes to peace of mind while traveling for work or leisure.

Travel Guard provides you and your family with the worldwide travel assistance you need — from pre-trip information, such as immunization requirements, to help with lost or stolen luggage. Even medical and transportation assistance is available in the event of a travel emergency. Services may be accessed by phone 24 hours a day, seven days a week from anywhere in the world. What's more, because these services are automatically included as an added value through American General Life Companies,¹ there is no charge for the program.
